

2016-17 SUNY Workforce Development Training Grant

NCC Non-Credit Programs

Interested in improving your skills, gaining a credential, or advancing in your career? Consider taking a non-credit training course or certification program offered by the Office of Workforce Development and Lifelong Learning at Nassau Community College (NCC). Courses are available in health care, project management as well as other professional education disciplines.

Catholic Health Services currently partners with NCC's Center for Workforce Development to provide computer software, business and leadership courses onsite. However, they also offer open enrollment courses designed for individual enrollment on the NCC campus to help those interested in professional development and advancement. Check with the Human Resources Department for information regarding tuition reimbursement.

Below is the link to the Spring 2017 brochure which lists available courses and provides a registration form: http://www.ncc.edu/continuingeducation/pdfs/Sp17_CED_Brochure.pdf If you have any questions, call the Center for Workforce Development at 516.572.7487 or email cwd@ncc.edu.

NCC Credit Programs

Catholic Health Services is happy to partner with Nassau Community College (NCC), part of the SUNY system, to provide training for our employees in the workplace. On campus or online, NCC also offers opportunities for those interested in pursuing degrees and certificates in a wide range of disciplines.

NCC offers day, evening, weekend courses in credit continuing and professional programs from its traditional, 225-acre campus in Garden City. The College is dedicated to high quality, low-cost education and career preparation to meet the needs and interests of the community it serves. To this end, Nassau Community College offers Associate in Arts, Associate in Science, and Associate in Applied Science degrees, as well as Certificate and workforce development programs. Its curricula span the liberal arts and sciences, as well as pre-professional and professional areas, for the benefit of a diverse population.

Whether applying to the College to earn a degree or to enroll in a credit course for professional development or personal enrichment, NCC offers online admissions and registration easy. The following link provides access to the listing of all programs of study and the College catalog of credit courses: <http://www.ncc.edu/programsandcourses/> New students may apply online at: <http://www.ncc.edu/admissions/>

Check with the Human Resources Department for information regarding tuition reimbursement.
